

911/ Help In Time Of Trouble

When we hear the word "911" we associate it with an emergency.

Psalm 91:1 NKJV

"He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High Shall abide under the shadow of the almighty."

When we are faced with a situation where a sudden need for immediate action is needed we should remember Psalm 91:1, our spiritual 911. By living close to God when a situation arises that might cause fear we can turn to God. Going to God in prayer should be our first response, not our last hope.

Knowing that God is overshadowing us and hearing our every cry brings a sweet wonderful peace. No matter what we are going through.

We can live close to God by abiding in Him. Abide means staying, remaining, or living in one place day after day. It can also mean to submit to, accept and follow out, remain true to, continue to live in.

If we want to remain under the shadow of the Almighty we must accept Jesus as our Savior and make Him the Lord of our life because the only way we can have a relationship with the Father is through the Son.

Once we accept Jesus as our Savior and Lord then we must submit to Him and remain true (faithful or loyal) to Him. We must agreeing with His standards. Reading the Bible, God's Word, is very important. We must read it and then we must follow out upon, or do what it says. Each day we must strive to live a life that is pleasing to God and be a good example for others. Each day we must have an "up-to-date" relationship with God.

What does abiding mean?

I know that I can trust the Lord, because he protects me and makes me strong.

Find the path from start to finish.

Psalm 91:1-2 NKJV

“He who _____ in the _____ place of the Most _____ Shall abide under the _____ of the Almighty. I will _____ of the _____, “He is my _____ and my _____: My _____, in _____ I will _____.”

Psalm 91 NKJV

"He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
I will say of the Lord, "He is my refuge and my fortress; My God, in Him I will trust."
Surely He shall deliver you from the snare of the fowler And from the perilous pestilence.
He shall cover you with His feathers, And under His wings you shall take refuge; His truth shall be your shield and buckler.

You shall not be afraid of the terror by night, Nor of the arrow that flies by day,
Nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness, Nor of the destruction that lays waste at noonday.
A thousand may fall at your side, And ten thousand at your right hand; But it shall not come near you.
Only with your eyes shall you look, And see the reward of the wicked.
Because you have made the Lord, who is my refuge, Even the Most High, your dwelling place,
No evil shall befall you, Nor shall any plague come near your dwelling;
For He shall give His angels charge over you, To keep you in all your ways.
In their hands they shall bear you up, Lest you dash your foot against a stone.
You shall tread upon the lion and the cobra, The young lion and the serpent you shall trample underfoot.

"Because he has set his love upon Me, therefore I will deliver him; I will set him on high, because he has known My name.
He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him and honor him.
With long life I will satisfy him, And show him My salvation."
